Re: Complaint against Dan Seals for Congress

Dear Ms. Duncan:

I respectfully file this complaint against Dan Seals for Congress, a registered political committee, for ALLEGEDLY reporting an illegal contribution received from a man who died nearly three months before he made the reported contribution. The information contained in this complaint comes from publicly available sources and is based upon information and belief.

On July 15, 2008, Dan Seals for Congress reported its July Quarterly 2008 disclosure with the Commission. In Schedule A for Line #11AI, Dan Seals for Congress reports a receipt of $1,000 on May 7, 2008 from a Mr Robert M. Schrayer of 1620 Spruce Ave in Highland Park, IL.

However, published death notices and obituaries (enclosed for reference) reveal Mr. Schrayer passed away on February 21, 2008. Therefore, Mr. Schrayer could not have intended to make a $1,000 contribution to Dan Seals for Congress on May 7, 2008, more than two months after his death. FEC regulations (11 CFR sec. 110.4) prohibit making a contribution in the name of another. Federal statute also prohibits contributions in the name of another (2 USC sec. 441f).

On its face, Dan Seals for Congress appears to have accepted a contribution and reported an illegal contribution from a dead man in violation of federal election law. It is disturbing that Dan Seals for Congress, a registered political committee, has lowered itself to such machine-style politics of old.

I ask the Commission to (1) investigate the circumstances by which Dan Seals for Congress disclosed a contribution receipt from a man who was dead for nearly three months, (2) punish Dan Seals for Congress for this violation of federal law, and (3) require Dan Seals for Congress to accept contributions from the living.

Respectfully,

Daniel Bryant

Jewish leader Robert M. Schrayer dies at 75

By Joel Schatz

Assistant Director of Communications

Robert M. Schrayer, one of the Jewish community's most prominent and long-serving leaders locally, nationally and internationally, died Thursday, Feb. 21.

He was 75.

Schrayer, of Highland Park, is one of the few people to have twice headed the Board of Directors of the Jewish United Fund/Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago, as President from 1979 to 1981, and as Chairman in 1998. He was Chairman of JUF's Jewish Community Relations Council from 1981 to 1984, chaired JUF's Annual Campaign in 2005, and headed countless committees and events over a communal career that spanned decades.

At the national level, Schrayer chaired the 2001 and 2002 Annual Campaigns of the United Jewish Communities, the umbrella organization for all North American Jewish Federations, and UJC's 2003 Israel Emergency Campaign, which provided terror relief to the people of Israel. He also served on the Board of the National Jewish Community Relations Advisory Council, chaired the National Young Leadership Cabinet of the United Jewish Appeal, and served as UJA's vice president and regional chairman.

Internationally, Schrayer was a member of the executive committee of the Jewish Agency for Israel and the American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee.

In 1997, Schrayer received the Julius Rosenwald Memorial Award, the Chicago Jewish Federation's highest honor. Other honors included the Human Rights Medallion of the American Jewish Committee, the Herbert Geron Award of the Young Leadership Cabinet of the UJA, and the Chicago Jewish Federation's first Young Leadership Award.

In 2003, Schrayer was inducted into the Jewish Community Centers of Chicago Hall of Fame.

The Schrayer family has been part of the Chicago Jewish community since before the Civil War, and has a long heritage of communal leadership. Schrayer's father, Max Robert Schrayer, is the only person ever to have served as general chairman of three JUF Annual Campaigns. Schrayer's wife, Barbara, son, Skip, and daughters, Elizabeth and Deborah, all also have been active in a wide range of Jewish communal efforts.

Robert M. Schrayer addressing a Jewish Federation Annual Meeting

"Bob Schrayer was a visionary and extraordinarily committed to all that was good in America and Israel," said Steven B. Nasatir, President of the JUF and Jewish Federation and a dear friend and colleague of Schrayer's for more than 37 years. "He and others of his generation influenced the direction of this Federation to embrace greater connection with Israel and to emphasize tradition and Jewish continuity. At the drop of a hat, he would travel to Israel, the former Soviet Union, Ethiopia, anywhere that Jewish lives were in danger or people were in need."

"Bob was a gentle, kind and soft-spoken man with a gigantic Jewish heart," said Harvey Barnett, Chairman of the JUF/Federation Board. "He led by his actions and inspired all of us to greater heights. As Kipling wrote, 'he could walk with kings and keep the common touch' – a true mensch whose loss will be felt throughout the Jewish world. May his memory be for a blessing."

(Read quotes by Bob Schrayer from the pages of JUF News)

Israel's Ambassador to the United States, Sallai Mendor, said "I learned of the passing of Robert Schrayer with a profound sense of loss and sorrow. He was a close personal friend and a great supporter of the State of Israel. Robert's work with the United Jewish Communities and the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago will live on long after his untimely and unfortunate death. I extend my sincere and heartfelt condolences to the entire Schrayer family."

Professionally, Schrayer was president of Associated Agencies in Rolling Meadows and of Auto and Home Insurance Agency in Downers Grove, and worked as an executive in the insurance industry for more than 50 years. A native South Sider, he earned his bachelor's degree from the University of Michigan and served in the U.S. Army from 1954-56. The Schrayers are members of North Shore Congregation Israel and Am Shalom, both in Glencoe.

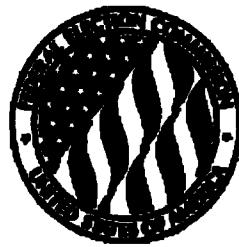

Schrayer is survived by his wife, Barbara, son Max R. "Skip" (Lynn) of Highland Park, daughters Elizabeth Schrayer (Jeff Schwaber) of Rockville, MD, and Deborah (Jon) Kamrin of Chicago, and grandchildren Annie, Eli and Joey Schrayer; Joshua and Daniel Schwaber; and Alison, Zachary and Sam Kamrin.

Funeral arrangements are being handled by Piser Funeral Services in Skokie.

The Federation has established a Robert M. Schrayer Memorial Fund. Checks should be made payable to JF-R Schrayer Memorial Fund and sent to the Jewish Federation, 30 South Wells Street, Room 3138, Chicago, IL 60606.
